1. Unconfirmed report indicates that present Communist strike and political activities in France are directed by the Commission Centrale des Dadres. The Commission, which usually meets in Paris, receives orders directly from Moscow and, in the management of the current Communist agitation, has superseded the regular French Communist leaders.
2. The personnel of the Commission consists of the following three men:

Jean Chaumeil: Secretary of the Commission. Formerly checked on the political antecedents of candidates for important posts in the French Communist Party (FCP).

Colonel Georges Beyer: One of the principal members of the FCP intelligence service. Member of the Comite Militaire National Glandestin, governing the shock troops of the Association Nationale des Anciens Francs-Tireurs et Partisans Francais [REDACTED]

25X1A

Michel Cervin: Probably identical with Marcel Servin, previously reported as chef de cabinet to Maurice Thorez and member of FCP Central Committee.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
